

Btk Aerial Application for Spongy Moths 139 Acres - 1 application May 2024 1st Draft

11/16/2023, 2:07:23 PM

Proposed Treatments

 BTK-MD

This area to be treated for an infestation of the Spongy moth with Btk -Bacillus thuringiensis var. Kurstaki. Btk is a bacterial insecticide that occurs naturally, It is cultured by fermenting grains. Foray 48B Organic is the product used. The area will be treated mid May 2024, weather permitting, The Btk will be sprayed from low flying helicopters. Red area is the area to be sprayed, Green outline is flight only. This program is managed by the Illinois Department of Agriculture and the Slow the Spread Foundation. For more information call the IDA Northern Field Office 815.787.5476

Esri Community Maps Contributors, Esri, HERE, Garmin, SafeGraph, GeoTechnologies, Inc, METI/NASA, USGS, EPA, NPS, US Census Bureau,

IL_CARROLL_BTK_1

STS ISG
2022